

King of Kings Is Born

Words and Music by CHARLES JOSEPH COMBS
(1919-1980)

S. A. T. B.

Arranged by DAVID M. COMBS

1

1. I heard the bells ring out, I heard the an-gels sing,

6

Christ the Lord is born. I saw the star a-bove, I heard the shep-herds say, Christ the Lord is Born! He's 18

12

King of all our lives, and King of all man-kind.

22

King of Kings is He. King of all our hearts and 28

King of all our lives. King of Kings is born. 2. It's

Two-Part Harmony:
Men - melody
Women - alto

Permission is granted for the making of a limited number of copies of this choral version only of King of Kings Is Born exclusively for use by the performing choir/chorus members and not for resale. Instrumental version is available on the album, First Christmas. Piano music book is also available. Contact Combs Music, 800-932-6627, www.combsmusic.com.

© 1981 David M. Combs

All rights reserved including public performance for profit.

King of Kings Is Born

Page 2

Two-Part Harmony:
Women - melody
Men - tenor

34

peace on earth to all, good-will to all man-kind. Christ the 39

Four-Part Harmony

Lord is born! He's King of all man-kind, a shep-herd's friend to 45

CHORUS

all. King of Kings is born! He's King of all our lives, and 52

King of all man-kind. King of Kings is He.

58

King of all our hearts and King of all our lives. King of 63

Kings is Born!